SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

We are announcing the availability of a guidance for industry entitled “Compounding Certain Beta-Lactam Products in Shortage Under Section 503A of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.” This guidance is being implemented without prior public comment because FDA has determined that prior public participation for this guidance is not feasible or appropriate (see section 701(h)(1)(C) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FD&C Act) (21 U.S.C. 371(h)(1)(C)) and 21 CFR 10.115(g)(2)). This guidance document is being implemented immediately because of the public health need for amoxicillin oral antibiotic suspension products, but it remains subject to comment in accordance with the Agency’s good guidance practices.

This guidance describes the Agency’s regulatory and enforcement priorities regarding preparation of beta-lactam oral antibiotic suspension products that appear on FDA’s drug shortage list by a licensed pharmacist in a State-licensed pharmacy or Federal facility. FDA has received a number of reports related to increased demand for amoxicillin oral antibiotic suspension products in particular. Amoxicillin oral antibiotic powder for suspension products currently appear on FDA’s drug shortage list. FDA has also received requests for clarification about preparation of compounded versions of those products from FDA-approved tablets and capsules.

This guidance is being issued consistent with FDA’s good guidance practices regulation (21 CFR 10.115). The guidance represents the current thinking of FDA on “Compounding Certain Beta-Lactam Products in Shortage Under Section 503A of the FD&C Act.” It does not establish any rights for any person and is not binding on FDA or the public. You can use an alternative approach if it satisfies the requirements of the applicable statutes and regulations.
